

Valley Adaptive Sports 2023 Impact Highlight

Goals for 2023.

- Triple the number of people served.
- Grow the available resources for scholarships
- Purchase equipment for summer and winter sports
- Train partner organizations to work with athletes with disabilities
- Support more communal opportunities, festivals

In 2023 Valley Adaptive Sports provided free of charge:

- 83 individuals served in 2024. Up from 24 in 2023. Up 345%
- 24 sled hockey sessions between Victor, ID and Idaho Falls, ID
- 23 cycling lessons
- 42 ski lessons scholarships (JHMR, GTR)
- 2 spinal cord injury camps in a supporting role
- 48 swimming lessons
- 8 rock climbing lessons
- 2 Wraaptor Nordic Xc skis purchased (arriving December 2023)
- 37 Adaptive cyclist at Wydaho Festival

2024 Events on the Calendar:

- Sled Hockey in Victor and Idaho Falls.
- Mission 43/ Idaho Falls Spud Kings Hockey Colab Jersey Silent Auction. January 13, 2023.
- Challenged Athletes Foundation Adaptive Ski Festival at Grand Targhee. Jan. 12,13,14,15 2024. Spots available!!!
- Wydaho Festival Adaptive Cycling Event. Labor Day 2024.
- Swimming with Teton Valley Aquatics.
- Rock Climbing at the Teton Rock Gym

Partnerships in 2023- We are grateful for our partners who train, build and believe in increased accessible recreation in Eastern Idaho

- Challenged Athletes Foundation
- Mission 43
- Idaho Interscholastic Cycling League- A NICA League
- Teton Adaptive Sports
- Grand Targhee Resort
- Teton Valley Aquatics
- Teton Valley Foundation- Kotler Ice Arena
- Teton Valley Trails and Pathways
- Teton Rock Gym
- Higher Ground Sun Valley
- Advocates for Multi Use of Public Land
- Mountain Bike the Tetons
- Teton Nordic XC School
- Craig Hospital
- Neufit
- USFS Field Office- Driggs

2023 Grants Awarded

- Teton Springs Foundation
- Community Foundation of Teton
- Valley competitive grant and Tin Cup
- The Gibney Family Foundation
- Wood River Ability Program Wraptor Grant

Many thanks to our individual donors in 2023!

We are mission driven and will continue to provide more and better opportunities for accessible recreation in 2024!